A LONG TRADITION OF PHILANTHROPY

Wamego’s citizens have a long and proud tradition of philanthropy and support of the community and its institutions. From the development of what has been described as the most beautiful city park in Kansas to the renovation of the Columbian Theatre and recent establishment of the Oz Museum, a heritage of generosity has evolved that is unique among small towns in America.

The formation of Wamego Community Foundation in 1998 created an efficient and nonpartisan mechanism by which individuals, families, businesses, civic and nonprofit organizations, and private foundations can make gifts to benefit the community and region.

The existence of the Foundation means that over time a substantial pool of funds can be built from both large and small contributions. The income from these permanently endowed funds will be available in perpetuity to meet many of the community’s needs. Wamego Community Foundation exists solely for donors to give through—and to keep donated dollars working locally to improve the quality of life for the citizens of Wamego and the surrounding area.
